DISSIPATED FORTUNE DIVORCE PLEA BASIS

Husband Married for Money, Wife
Plaintiff Avers.

Edith L. Brown brought suit in the Equity Courts yesterday for a limited divorce and alimony from Walter M. Brown, naming a co-defendant. Defendant is engaged in business in the Center Market. According to the complaint, the two were married here October 4, 1899, and four children were born, of whom Mrs. Brown asks the custody. Mrs. Brown avers that she paid the wedding expenses and has since advanced her husband money to the extent of $9,000, and sums up by declaring that "the attitude of the defendant toward the plaintiff was never prompted by affection, but that his sole object apparently was to consume and dissipate the plaintiff's patrimony."

She alleged that January 8, 1915, her husband deserted her after leaving her to live in a sparsely settled suburban neighborhood where she was exposed to danger.

Charles T. Hendler is Mrs. Brown's attorney.

PROBATE OF 5 WILLS SOUGHT YESTERDAY

Catherine S. Holton's Estate Split
Among Many Relatives.

Five wills were filed for probate yesterday in the office of Registrar Tanner. The will of Catherine S. Holton, who died here recently, is dated February 12, 1909, and leaves an estate of unknown value to various relatives. Viola Gross, a niece, and Mary M. Cross, an adopted daughter, get the household furniture, and the balance of the estate is divided in equal shares among the following: John Clark, Louis Clark and Joseph Clark, her three sons, $5, $200, and $150, respectively; Susan Phillips and Rosa Clark, two daughters, get $200 each, and Florence Clark, another daughter, is bequeathed $500, while Arthur Phillips, a grandson, is left $50. Rev. Mark M. Bell is named executor without bonds.

The will of Michael Maloney, who died here April 14 last, leaves lot 27, square 752, to Mary E. Fahey, a daughter, and lot 317, square 674, to Margaret E. Madigan, another daughter. The will is dated December 2, 1912, and names Robert A. Dove executor without bonds.

Everything was left to his wife by Louis Sonneborn, who died in this city April 24 last. His will is dated May 15, 1915, and attested by Michael Barr, George Duvall, Jr., and Edward Kaufman, all of this city. The wife is also named as executrix without bonds.

The will of Nancy Tolson, dated October 21, 1912, was found in her house after she died January 30, 1918, and in it she makes the following bequests: Mary Ann Elizabeth Skinner, a daughter, the lot and improvements at 446 Ninth street southwest; Clara V. Mack, a niece, of Chicago, and William T. Morris, of this city, a nephew, the house and lot at 441 Ninth street southwest, during their lives, the property after their death to go to the children of Mrs. Skinner, who is named executrix without bonds.

CLERKS BUYING W. S. S. HELPS SALES' GROWTH

The purchase of war savings and thrift stamps continues to grow, especially in the various government departments. During the week ending April 27, the employees of the Navy Department purchased stamps to the amount of $2,383. This makes the Navy Department total $32,810. Chairman Frank Baumgartner of the war savings committee in the State Department, reports good sales among the clerks. Although the sales in this department have not been as large as those of the various other branches of the government, the fact that there are only 450 employees in this department makes the record stand well among the other branches.

STORES AGREE TO ELIMINATE ALL DISCOUNTS

Merchants and Manufacturers Exempt Employees Under New Ruling.

With the beginning of today's business, a ban is on discounts of every character save those to employees, according to a statement issued last night from the office of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

"Such a ruling was adopted by the association some months ago and when the new rule was unanimously adopted, it was arranged to have it take effect May 1, 1918.

"This is a great boon to the buying public," said President M. A. Leese. "The practice of giving a preferential discount to members of associations and organizations for that purpose has been of long standing. It was the result of misguided competition in trade, but I am happy to announce that the business interests of Washington have realized the unfairness of this practice and that the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association has taken the lead in crushing out this trade parasite."

"I am sure that it was never the desire of the business men to do an unfair act, but rather that this practice grew like the proverbial 'Topsy,' or just because 'the other fellow' was doing it."

Discounts to organizations of any kind are unfair. Business must serve all of the public alike. There can be no discrimination for any reason. One man or one woman's dollar must be as good and have the same purchasing power as another regardless of whether they may happen to be affiliated with an organization or not."

"We believe that it is especially important that this rule should be put into effect at this time, since Washington is now the home of a tremendous population of comparative strangers."

"The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association is very much interested in this matter. It believes this rule to be the ultimate in principle and fair dealing."

"There must be one price to all and that is not possible where any part of the buying public is allowed a preferential discount."

Y. M. C. A. WILL HOLD THREE-STAR PROGRAM

Exercises Tonight Will Be Featured by Diversified Entertainment.

A triple program, to which men and women have been invited, will be arranged at the Washington Y. M. C. A. for this evening.

Daniel C. Long, 15 years old, who already has become an expert in acrobatics, will be the feature of the evening's program. He will give a talk explaining the principles of aerial craft and describe the differences in various types of planes now in use.

Young Mr. Long, still a student at St. Alban's School, has been commended for his expert knowledge by officers of the American army and by foreign armies in Washington. He is a son of Charles Colfax Long, of this city.

Another feature will be an address by Maj. Teiunasanu, military attaché of the Rumanian Legation.

At 7 o'clock Dr. C. N. Chipman will talk in the assembly hall on "Home Preparations for Sick and Injured."

PASSAGE OF D. C. BILL URGED ON CONGRESS

Appropriation Should Be Made Quickly, Says Rep. Sisson.

The District appropriation bill, carrying a total of $13,426,393.06 for the expenses of the District for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919 will come up in the House at noon today.

The regular order of business will be dispensed with to allow the bill a clear track. Representative Sisson, chairman of the House Appropriation Committee, outlined the items carried in the bill yesterday afternoon, urging the members of the committee to pass the bill, citing as one reason the increased population of the city since war was declared.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try This! Darkens Beautifully and Nobody Can Tell. Brings Back Its Gloss and Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle at little cost at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared.

After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease. Adv.

ARMY ACCEPTS Y. M. C. A. HUT IN POTOMAC PARK

Large Audience Witnesses Dedication of Structure for Men in Uniform.

Joy reigned supreme last night at the Potomac Park training camp when the Class E recreation hut, just completed by the Y. M. C. A., was dedicated to the soldier boys.

William Knowles Cooper, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for the District of Columbia, in a short speech, turned the building over to Maj. W. S. Neely, U. S. A., commander of Potomac Park Camp, who in accepting the keys said:

"We will accept this Y. M. C. A. building and are very grateful for its use. We appreciate the efforts that the Y. M. C. A. have made, are still making and will continue to make to add to the comfort and contentment of the soldiers of the United States army."

"I have met representatives of the Y. M. C. A. at army stations in various parts of the world. I met one in the Philippines, one at Camp Keithley, Mindanao, fourteen years ago. I ran across another in Alaska ten years ago. They were helping to make soldiers comfortable in those out-of-the-way places. The work of the Y. M. C. A. agents with the army has always been creditable and the army appreciates it."

"In the name of this garrison, I wish to thank these Y. M. C. A. men for the use of this building, and for the spirit that prompted them to construct it here."

Secretary E. E. Briggs, of the Y. M. C. A., presided at the dedicatory exercises, which was witnessed by a large audience.

Music was furnished by the Fort Myer Band, under the leadership of Sgt. Charles Williamson. The program included an invocation by Dr. Hickok; solo by Lieut. Roberts, Fifth Infantry, U. S. A.; presentation of building and its acceptance; "chalk talk" by Representative John M. Baer, of North Dakota; address by Rev. John B. Clarke, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church; song "America," by the audience, and benediction, by Rev. Charles A. Shreve.

COUNSEL OF WOMEN RAPES APPEAL COURT

Declares Decision Against Suffragists Without Precedent.

"The decision is contrary to every precedent. It permits executive officers of the government to alter the sentence of the court—thing unheard of in the annals of English law."

In this manner did counsel for the suffragists today comment on the decision of the United States Court of Appeals in Richmond, Va., which declares White House pickets who escaped prison as a result of being released on bond must either pay fines or serve jail sentences. The decision applies to Mrs. Henry Butterworth, Mrs. Eunice B. Brennan and Miss Cora Weeks, who may be compelled to return to the District of Columbia jail to serve unexpired sentences. The suffragists intend to carry the case to the Supreme Court.
